

Charles David "Butch" Uland

January 17, 1943 - October 5, 2023

Charles David "Butch" Uland, 80, of Bloomington passed away on October 5, 2023 at his residence.

Born January 17, 1943 in Morgan County, he was the son of Charles Vernon "Monk" Uland and Dorothy Louise (Myers) Uland.

Butch graduated from Bloomington High School. He then served his country with honor joining the United States Navy on the USS Forrestal (CVA59). He kept track of the USS Forrestal throughout the years although it is now disassembled, models of the ship can be found in the National Museum of the U.S. Navy in Washington, D.C.

Butch worked at Otis Elevator and retired just before his health began to decline.

Butch had a deep passion for fishing, you could often find him at Lake Monroe passing time and participating in various fishing tournaments.

He leaves his memories to his daughter Katherine (Robby) L. Phillips, grandson Brandon (Amy) Fender, two great grandsons and one great granddaughter, sister Denise Hancock and one niece and nephew.

His loving parents and aunt, Dorothy Ann (Don) Alexander preceded him in death.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 South Old State Road 37 in Bloomington have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencare.com

There will be no burial and services will not be held as the family wish to honor his memory in private.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Butch for more years than I can remember. I will miss him. ”

David Young - October 15, 2023 at 08:14 PM

Butch was one of our regulars at our quarterly get-togethers. He will be missed.

Terresa Thompson - October 19, 2023 at 02:43 PM