“ Charlie Brown was always cheerful, but what I best remember was his statesmanlike conduct in a crisis.

My heart goes out to his family at this sad time.

Sincerely,

Tomilea Allison

“ • Charles “E” as I affectionately call you. My good friend “The Gentle Giant” with the contagious laugh, the Marines marine....tough as nails and got the job done. Let me pay tribute to the fact that you are Bloomington, Indiana’s FIRST BLACK POLICE OFFICER.....Honorable, Fair, Compassionate , a believer in second chances and rose to the distinctive grade of Captain.

Charles “E” you are a special breed, you cast a shadow a mile high. You are missed, however, you and your family continue to occupy a special place in our hearts and prayers. Sincerely, Phyllis Kinnear Carington
