

Cheryl Ann Campbell

July 10, 1964 - September 26, 2022

Cheryl Ann Campbell, 58, of Bloomington passed away on Monday September 26, 2022 at her home.

She was born on July 10, 1964 in El Paso, TX, the daughter of Max Edward Campbell Sr. and Mildred Velda (Leonard) Campbell. Cheryl was a 1982 graduate of Bloomington High School North.

Cheryl was a title clerk at Royal on the Eastside for the last ten years, before that she worked as the general manager for Blockbuster Video on the West side of Bloomington for over twenty years. Cheryl was a member of Bloomington Baptist Church. She enjoyed traveling, watching movies, and taking care of her cats. She especially loved her family, as they were the most important part of her life, and she loved spending time with them. She will be greatly missed.

Cheryl is survived by her niece, Brandy M. (Gabe) Campbell Beyers; of Bloomington her nephew, Max E. Campbell III of Indianapolis; a great-niece, Olivia A. Beyers; and great-nephew, Aiden G. Beyers.

She was preceded in death by parents, Max Edward and Mildred Velda Campbell Sr.; sister, Linda G. Campbell; and brother, Max E. Campbell, Jr.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Monday October 3, 2022 at Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old State Road 37 Bloomington. Private burial services will be held at Valhalla Cemetery in Bloomington.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com

“ I was having morning sickness when Max and Velda stopped by to see me on the way to El Paso. A very short time later, I received a letter from Velda telling me that she caught what I had. Did not know that was contagious?!?, but Cheryl was born a short time after my daughter, Leticia, was born.
I have loved this family for a multitude of years.
