“ Chris and I spent our later formative years at Mooseheart located between Aurora and Batavia, IL where his brothers, Edgar and Jerry lived as well. Chris and I became more acquainted later in life when he eventually joined me in WI, the home of his beloved Packers. We enjoyed traveling to Branson, in and around WI and later to Mt Rushmore in South Dakota, dancing, fishing, playing cards, watching the Packers and Chris doing his Uber thing. Loved hearing his stories.

I was privileged to have Chris as part of my life for at least six years and will forever be grateful for our relationship and being able to love and care for him. There wasn't a soul here in WI that knew Chris, that didn't love and enjoy him. Thanks for the memories, Baby Cakes!
