Born on February 3, 1959, in Beech Grove, Indiana, to Jean Sipes and Wayne Ward, Chris was adopted and raised by June and Richard Jackson.

He graduated from Bloomington High School South in 1977 and retired from Cook Inc. after 25 years of service.

Chris lived in several places throughout his life, including Logansport, Indiana (1959–1972), Taylorville, IL; New Castle, IN; Linton, IN; Richmond, VA; and Denver, CO, before spending the majority of his years in Bloomington, Indiana.

He was a devoted Christian and follower of Jesus Christ. Chris enjoyed; genealogy, U.S. and world history, antiques, and music spanning the 1940s through the 1980s—especially The Beatles and classic rock.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Diana Jackson; his children, Rusty Hodges (Whitney), Carrie Jackson, and Christopher Mark Jackson (Bianca); seven grandchildren, Will, Wrigley, Wrylan, Daria, Hadley, Georgia, and Ledger; his brother, Richard “Rick” Sipes; his nieces and nephews, Jennifer (Nate), Danny, Will, and Anna.

He was preceded in death by his birth parents, Jean Sipes and Wayne Ward; his adoptive parents, June and Richard Jackson; and his brothers, Michael and Gary Jackson.

Chris would want those who knew him to remember what is important, to share the Gospel of Jesus, and never miss the opportunity to say "I love you".

“ So thankful for seeing Uncle Chris last summer in Nashville and other visits! We will miss his texts about basketball and how crazy Colorado is! We are so thankful to know that he is with his Saviour and we will get to see him again soon! I know he is up there with our family busting out jokes and shooting hoops!!

I have been privileged to know Chris for many years. I will miss his silly/corny jokes. Chris was such a unique person with a plethora of interests/hobbies. A funny memory I have, is when Chris was a teenager, a new driver, I was dating his brother, Mike, and while driving my car, Chris got the key stuck/jammed in the ignition! Chris was so apologetic. He would often remind me of that event and we would laugh together. I will miss you, Chris. I know I will see you again. Now you and Mike have lots of time to spend together doing goofy things.
