

Cleophas Worley

May 18, 1921 - May 22, 2010

Cleophas Worley, 89, passed away on May 22 at Bell Trace Health and Living Center in Bloomington, Indiana after a long illness. Cleo was born May 18, 1921 to Thomas Jefferson Worley and Hattie Scott Worley in Wyoming County, West Virginia. Cleo graduated from Mullins High School, Mullins, West Virginia and West Virginia Business College, Bluefield, West Virginia. He was employed as company auditor for Rish Equipment Company and their subsidiaries. He retired in 1982 after 42 years of service. After retirement, Cleo and Irene wintered in Naples, Florida.

Cleo was a member of East Naples United Methodist Church in Naples, Florida. He was a Master Mason and member of Mercer Lodge No. 85, Bluefield, West Virginia, and a member of Beni Kedem Shrine of Charleston, West Virginia. He was also a lifetime member of The Fraternal Order of Elks, Bluefield, West Virginia.

Cleophas was a veteran of World War II serving two years in the Army based in England with the 7th General Hospital. On April 12, 1941 Cleo married his sweetheart, the former Irene Bausell, of Lebanon, Virginia who survives to treasure to memories of their 69 years of love and companionship.

Survivors include his wife, Irene Bausell Worley, one daughter, Brenna Worley Bailey, and grandsons, Phillip Anderson Bailey and Adam Darrell Bailey of Bloomington, Indiana, and Marshall Lee Bailey of Gaithersburg, Maryland.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, brothers, Alvah H. Worley, Lawrence Worley and Thomas E. Worley, and sisters, Thelma Worley,

Grace Mullins, Florence Averill, Mayme Summerfield, Mildred Jenks, and Athealeen Palmer.

There will be no services at this time. A celebration of life gathering will be held at a later date.

Many thanks to the wonderful staff of Bell Trace Health and Living Center and Hospice for their loving care. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Bloomington, PO Box 1149, Bloomington, IN 47402.

Tribute Wall

LA

“ To ALL the family,I hope your sorrow begins to fade quickly. It is always tough to give loved ones up but when you think of him think happy thoughts. Very sincerely, Larry.

Larry Arthur - March 22, 2013 at 08:20 AM

CJ

“ Brenna, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your mother during this time. I smiled when I remembered your uncle. Alva and Arcie are missed also. Wishing you pleasant memories and grace during this time. Charlie

Charles and Judy Chandler - March 22, 2013 at 08:20 AM