

Cole H. DeBoy

September 11, 1993 - July 2, 2024

Cole H. DeBoy, age 30, passed away Tuesday, July 2nd, at home of a drug overdose. He was born in Bloomington, Indiana on September 11, 1993. He is survived by his parents, Kane and Paris King; daughter, Rue DeBoy; grandmother, Sandy Jones; siblings, Greer and Dash King, Joedy DeBoy of Scottsdale, Arizona; as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Cole was a gentle, kind, and loving soul; and he was a perfect storm for becoming addicted to drugs. He suffered from OCD, ADHD, depression, and anxiety. The pain he endured was greater than we even knew. Unfortunately, he searched for relief of his pain through drugs, but they weren't his friend, and they ultimately took his life.

Everyone who met Cole liked him immediately. He was articulate, personable, and generous to a fault.

He loved statistics, particularly the NBA; he could quote from memory any basketball stat you wanted to know. He and Rue loved to watch scary movies and enjoyed taking drives and listening to music together.

There was no one that could make his mom, Paris, laugh harder than Cole. The kind of laugh that hurts your stomach. Cole admired his dad, Kane, beyond measure, and in his grandmother, Sandy, is where he felt the safest. He was so proud of Greer and Dash.

A celebration of life gathering will be held for Cole on Sunday, July 7, 2024 from 11am-3pm at Allen Funeral Home (4155 S. Old State Road 37. Bloomington, IN 47404). In lieu of flowers, please donate to the charity of your choice.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory has been entrusted with the arrangements.

“ Cole we meant in a bad place, but we instantly clicked. You became the little brother I never had. I'll cherish all the times we hung out, all the phone calls and text messages giving each other a hard time. The sports arguments we had we something I'll always remember. We only knew each other a short time but we called each other family. I'm gonna miss you every day. Hopefully you've finally found peace. Rest Easy little bro.

“ Cole was one of the kindest humans I've ever known. His loving and thoughtful presence will forever be missed. He was there when I needed him with an encouraging word or the kind of hug that let you know he really cared. My heart goes out to his family, especially his daughter. I know he loved her so much.
