

Cynthia Jordan (Bannon) Klausmeier

December 1, 1928 - November 26, 2017

Cynthia Jordan (Bannon) Klausmeier died peacefully at Bloomington Hospital on 26 November 2017. She was born on 1 December 1928 in Arlington, Massachusetts, to Esther (Dalton) and James O. Jordan, Jr. She graduated from Radcliffe College in 1951. She had a successful career in direct mail advertising before marrying her first husband, William R. Bannon in 1959. While raising their daughter, she ran the business office for her husband's sales firm and worked outside the home in a number of different jobs. In 2007 she moved to Bloomington, Indiana, to live close to her grandsons William and James, whom she adored. While living in Bloomington, she met and married Robert E. Klausmeier, who gave her much joy in her last years. They shared a love for reading, cooking, watching sports, and singing old songs. She was predeceased by her parents, six siblings, and first husband. She is survived by her daughter, Cynthia Bannon, son-in-law, Michael Lundell, grandsons William and James, and by her second husband. She is also survived by her cousin Camilla Short and many neices and nephews. A memorial service will be held on 20 December 2017, 2-4 pm, at the Commons at Bell Trace. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Christ Child Society of Greater Boston, Inc. or to the Monroe County Public Library.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com.
