

David Michael Howard

October 5, 1983 - April 10, 2023

David Michael Howard, 39, died tragically on April 10th, 2023 in Bloomington, IN. David managed his contracting business Howard's Home Improvement Inc since 2005, having overseen multiple Bloomington residential and restaurant projects with various business partners, including the ReVv & Strum Hospitality group which developed Alley Works, Nourish Bar, Brilliant Coffee Co., and Capisce Market. He learned these skills building his own home in Vandalia, MI during university studying aviation and cello performance. Recently, he built his family a tiny home nestled within Bloomington forests and winding creeks. As a musician, he had played cello with the Summer Quartet and regional performers. As a youth, he sang as a soloist with the South Bend Symphony. He enjoyed mountain biking and rock climbing, having constructed climbing walls plus mini-wall for his children. He was described as a Renaissance Man and energizer bunny given his endless energy, ongoing projects, and varied interests.

David was preceded in death by parents Terald Howard and Linda (Harman) Howard as well as brother Jeffrey Howard.

He is survived by co-parent Jana Leigh and two children Emma and Cole Howard and siblings Tim Howard, Julie McFarlin, William Howard, and Daniel Howard.
