“ David is my spouses cousin. She had many fond memories of him from their childhood. They drifted apart as they reached adulthood, she became more of a “responsible adult”, while he became more of a “free spirit”, music was David’s passion and he pursued his dream like a cat chasing a butterfly, always just out of reach. David is chasing butterflies in heaven now, Dyann will see him again someday, I just hope that won’t be for many, many years. Rest In Peace David, The angels are your audience now.
