“ I had the honor of being with David during his admission at IUBH. I was his Chaplain but we also became friends. I am Saddened by his departure but also reassured of his destination. We had some great talks and a few laughs. I would Have loved to experience his gift of music. Lords blessings to the family.

I am so sorry for your loss. I knew David since elementary school. We hadn't seen each other in many years, but I still considered him as a friend. David was always a nice guy and I have good memories of him.

I was married to David for 6 and a half years. We had 2 beautiful children together. We were married very young so we struggled a lot. He definitely was a great musician. Like his father and other family members they were gifted to play almost anything they touched. A beautiful family to be a part of. I wish he could have taught his children more.

I am sad to learn of David's passing. I knew he wasn't in good health last time I spoke to him which had to be shortly before he passed away. I had told him about my Dad passing away and he was very sad about it. My Dad (Mike Sims) and David were very close friends. I know they are together hopefully in heaven playing music for the Angel's. I mean let's face it anyone who knew my Dad would say it's a 60/40 chance unless he repented and was truly forgiven. Rest peacefully David..you were a gentle soul.
