Funeral services for David Richard Caulfield will be Wednesday, January 14 at Trinity Episcopal Church, 111 South Grant Street, Bloomington, Indiana. Viewing will begin at noon, with the service to follow at 2:00pm. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Caulfield Funeral / Education Fund at <http://www.gofundme.com/k123l8>

David Richard Caulfield, 50, of Bloomington, died Saturday while out for a run. He was an avid runner and tri-athlete, an Indiana University alumnus and sports fan, and an aficionado of Marvel comics. A history enthusiast, David was following his long-time dream of earning a PhD. He was a graduate student and had an assistantship with Indiana University's School of Education.

David always made sure the people closest to him felt loved. He will be sorely missed by many. David is preceded in death by his parents, Richard and Betsy Caulfield. Survivors include his children, Raistlin (Cory) Caulfield, Heidi Caulfield, Tristan Caulfield; grandson Carter Kensinger; siblings, Elizabeth Felt, Michael Caulfield and Holly Cedar.

“ I am heart broken to hear this news. He was such a fun person to be around and truly showed us how to enjoy life. The mention of his name always put a smile on my face and brought back great school memories. I'm laughing right now thinking about band class and the prankster that he was. My heart goes out to his siblings and children.
