“ I will miss Debbie very much. I served as her pastor at The Open Door for the last 4 years. She and I shared many laughs, tears and prayers. I loved seeing Destiny's huge smile and getting a hug every Sunday morning. At last she knows peace.

“ My dear cousin and childhood friend,

I grieve at your passing. I am comforted in knowing your Dad was waiting there with open arms to receive you. How sad it is that our paths rarely crossed in our adult lives. Seeing you may have been far and few between, but when we we did I always felt the same kinmanship, loving bond of a close friendship, familiarity, and the strong sense of peace and calmness you have always emitted. I'm not aware of the successes and challenges of your adult life, but I do know you are still MY Debbie. I was blessed to have you as a cousin and honored to be your friend. <3 I will always have a great appreciation for you as my cousin and childhood friend. <3 ~ Carol Fleener Briley
