“ Debbie was such a beautiful person - creative, kind, nurturing and joyful. I will miss her. She and Larry were the first of the family I saw when they picked me up from the Indianapolis Airport on visits to Bloomington for the annual reunion. She and Larry continued the tradition and were always thinking of ways to make it more fun for the children.

May we all be comforted as we remember Debbie and how she helped to make our lives a little better and keep us in touch. Sadly, she brings us all together once more. Bless her memory, bless Larry, the children and grandchildren, and bless us all.

“ Miss Deb is one of most loving person to our family in the neighborhood along with her husband and rest of the family befriended me and never stopped. I saw her in Krogers one day and with our mask she new who I was, I started to get some eggs and she let me know you do not need to buy eggs, they both had such giving hearts did not want any money, " they both would say this is what neighbors do and that is what she did. If we all opened our hearts as she and Larry did and will continue to do. E-nrich, G-enuine, G-rateful, S-hining Star. Spells EGGs and expresses her giving and loving spirit. Your friends Coach and Dellsie Boddie. I love you was blessed by the Lord to have such a friend.
