“ Jeff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram, Bea and Carol, My heart is so very sad for our loss of Debbie. What wonderful memories I have of growing up with Debbie, her laugh when she got tickled, the fun, her loving, caring ways for everyone. The birthday sleepovers, when Mr. Ingram scared us to death, the happy little girls, staying up all night, giggling and sharing. Thank you for giving us such happy memories with such a special, loving lady. I know Debbie is singing with the angels for our Lord. My hope is we will meet again, as I know she is one of God's special angels. My condolences to all of you. Suzi Burns, Stop 20

“ I have no words to express how sorry I am for your loss. I truly loved Debbie. She was the kindest, most caring woman I have ever had the honor of knowing. She laughed with me in celebration when I was happy. She held my hand and comforted me when I cried. I am so grateful to have her as a part of my life for so many years. I will remember her for all of my days. Jeff, I wish that I had words that could offer you some comfort, however I know that words often fail in times like these. Please know you are in my thoughts. Thank you for sharing your home with me. Stephanie, I know how special your relationship with her was. She will always be with you in your heart and you possess so many of the amazing qualities she had. I love you. Please call on me if you need anything at all.

With love,
Stacie
