Dennis (Denny) Ray Covington

June 1, 1943-April 1, 2012

Dennis (Denny) Ray Covington, 68 of Bloomington passed away April 1, 2012 after a short battle with cancer. He was born in Bloomington Indiana on June 1st 1943, the son of William "Tince" Covington and Clarice (Corn) Stater. Denny was raised by his grandparents John "Cap" and Grace Covington.

Denny was a graduate of Bloomington High School. He was the historian of the family, and was passionate, working long and hard on family genealogy.

He is survived by a sister Mary C. (Bill) Borgman of Batesville, Indiana and a brother Leonard E. (Shelsie) Covington of Columbus, Indiana and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his longtime companion David Owens, his parents, Grandparents, one brother Kenneth K. Covington and a sister Clara M. Stater.

Denny will be missed by all his close cousins whom he grew up with; he was cherished by all his many friends, and never met a stranger.

A private memorial service will be held by the family.
