

Diane Cason Litten

October 11, 1934 - August 3, 2016

Diane Cason Litten was born on October 11, 1934 in Indianapolis, Indiana and passed away in Bloomington on August 3, 2016 surrounded by loving family. She was married to Carl A. (Jack) Litten on July 2, 1955 at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church. Carl preceded her in death. Diane was the daughter of John Marshall and Georgetta (Mosby) Cason.

Diane was a 1952 graduate of University High School in Bloomington and attended Indiana University. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and Evening Bells Homemakers Club. Diane was an office manager of her husband's branch office of Halderman Farm Management Service, Inc. for over 50 years.

Diane's pride and joy were her family. She is survived by her five children; Larry and his children, Marshall and Michelle; Lisa (Larry) Gates and their children, Richard, Rachel, and Ryan (Madison); Carla (Tom) Harvey and their daughters, Christina, Martha, and Lorrin; Todd (Dana) and their daughters, Allison and Audrey; and Lori (Jeff) Cardinal; and five great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her only sister, Carol (Cason) TeVault and nephews Tony (Victoria) and Eric (Darcie).

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, August 8, 2016 at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, 2222 East 3rd Street, “ Carla and Family, We met your mom only a few times, but could tell a lot about her by the family she mothered and loved. Your own work ethic, dedication, creativity and integrity are all tributes to her, and I know she was proud of her children and central to their lives. Our prayers for you, for no one is ever prepared to lose a beloved mother. -- Kathy, Steve, Justin, Daniel, Luke.
