

Dianna Rose Boettjer

February 15, 1951 - November 21, 2024

Diana Rose Boettjer danced through the pearly gates of Heaven on November 21st, 2024 after a valiant fight with lung cancer—a fight that she ultimately won when she leaped joyfully from her earthly body and walked home with Jesus.

She was born on February 15th, 1951. 1 Corinthians 13:13 tells us “So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” This verse was one of her favorites. She frequently quoted it, and always emphasized that love is the greatest above all else. She leaves behind a legacy of fierce, unconditional love, unwavering faith in Christ, and adventure and joy. Among her favorite things were the colors pink and yellow, purple peonies, bouquets of roses, little smiley face stickers, the chubby brown bears at the zoo, Thomas Kinkade paintings, sweet iced tea, and long hugs.

Dianna is a warm, immensely generous woman with a soul on fire for Christ, whom she centered her life around – is, not was, because she lives on in Heaven. Her children and grandchildren were her center of gravity in this life and what her world revolved around. She and her husband, Bill, frequently took their family traveling; from the seashore to the mountains and everywhere in between. Dianna and Bill instilled a sense of adventure, curiosity, and togetherness in their family that will never fade.

She is predeceased by her husband, William “Bill” Boettjer, who she is now joyfully reunited with. She is survived by her beloved children, Christina Finley and Michael Boettjer, and grandchildren, Makayla Finley, Brooklyn Bailey, BreAnna Boettjer, and William Boettjer, and a loving church community.

May we all have stories of great love, great adventure, and great faith to tell her when we reunite on those streets of gold.

Friends and family may visit on November 27, 2024, from 1pm to 2pm at Allen Funeral Home (4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington, IN 47401) with the funeral servicer at 2pm. Burial will follow at Clover Hill Cemetery.

“ Dianna was such a wonderful, kind person whose faith never wavered in times of loss or sickness. She always had a smile and a hug ready anytime I saw her. I was so saddened to hear of her passing and will miss her so much until we meet again at the feet of Jesus.
