“ I never had a chance to meet Dixie. Sorry for your loss, Rufo.

“ Dixie Jones was a born mother and then an amazing grandmother. Very few of us are born mothers (including me). My son, Nick, and her son-in-law, ate dinner at the Jones house almost every night in high school. She had a home cooked meal ready and the family sat down together. Nick always felt at home at Lynsey's. It certainly beat our crock pot or order out meal in the Dunning house when we always seemed to be in a hurry.

I remember Dixie's grace and kindness. She lit up a room. And she made the best potato salad!

*You will be missed,
The Dunning Family*

“ Dixie, Dennis and their parents Lee & Holly were not only friends but much more. She & her brother got their ways of life from their parents. If you visited them their mother was quick to offer you something to eat and she was as good of as a cook as you’ll ever find. Their father helped me build my chimney for my house in 1985 and I think of him with every fire I build to this very day. I came to Bloomington to attend Indiana University for four and a half years but their father would be the one to teach me how to make a living and raise a loving family. Her brother Dennis have me a place to live for a month until I found my house I live in to this very day. Dixie’s husband Rusty is as nice a person you’ll ever meet and kept Dixie happy and supported her through thick and thin. She and her brother Dennis and parents will be missed as long as live. They all will be missed and never forgotten as long as I live.
