

Donald Cloud

July 12, 1926 - August 30, 2012

Donald Cloud, 86, of Bloomington passed away at the I.U. Health-Bloomington Hospice House on Thursday, August 30th. He was born on July 12, 1926 in Cleveland, Ohio the youngest child of C. Cary and Vera (Nickerson) Cloud. Don was most proud of his father who was an artist and designed Cracker Jack toys.

Don served in the U.S. Navy during World War II in the Pacific arena. After the war, he worked in Chicago as an inspector at a fire extinguisher manufacturer. Then he moved to Nashville, IN in the late 1950's where he operated the Glass Menagerie formerly located next to the Candle Shop. It was there Don designed and sold his stained glass sculptures. He was a member of the Brown County Indiana Artists Association and had served as a juror for many shows.

Survivors include his wife Marilyn (Talbot) Cloud and his daughter, Cyndi C. Cloud of Washington and several grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Harold Cloud and his sister, Mary Cloud Smith.

Memorial services will be at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 15th at Sherwood Oaks Christian Church with Alan Phillips officiating. Services will be held in the church chapel. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old St. Rd. 37, Bloomington is in charge of arrangements.

“ I was so sad to hear of Don's passing. I look daily at the stained glass humming bird that he gave me many, many years ago. I was always honored that he gave that to me and knew he did it due to his love for you since I was your friend. Prayers are with you. Phyllis

“ Marilyn,

We were so sorry to hear of Don's passing. He was such a kind and generous man, that we had the wonderful pleasure of meeting just a few years back. I am sure he will be missed by family and friends.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

*Love,
Julie*
