“ Don had a wonderful way of making us feel welcome and wanted when we first met him in Cardiac Rehab at the Y. Knowing that we were both ministers of the Gospel was a special thing to share in common. His gracious character was certainly a blessing to many others over the years. Wishing Don's family, especially Wanda, every blessing in the risen Christ.

“ The YMCA family and friends are saddened by the passing of Don. He was a good friend, listener and story teller. All the Cardiopulmonary Rehab staff will dearly miss him, but are glad that Don is in peace.

Please accept our condolences. Don will forever be in our minds and hearts.

Blessings,

Margie and YMCA CR Staff
