“ I had the privilege of working with Donna for many years in the School of Public Health in what is now known as the Department of Health and Wellness Design. She was an extremely capable budget officer and was very loyal and dedicated to the people with whom she worked. She had a keen ability to dig through materials and solve problems. I appreciated her sense of humor and her loyalty to our department, and I will miss her greatly.

“ Within the past few years Donna and I became so much closer checking in on one another, laughing and listening to each others stories. Although she was a colleague, she was so much more to me and will be greatly missed. Donna, I can still hear your laugh.
