“ Aunt Doris was a treasured part of my childhood. She was lovely, caring and would always make me laugh with her funny stories and her rendition of “Crazy” by Patsy Cline.

When my cousin Dee Dee and I were invited over to her house as teenagers, Aunt Doris let us wear her fancy dresses, jewelry and make-up. We would dress up and dance around the house like movie stars!

When I think of Aunt Doris, it makes me smile.

I will truly miss her and keep her in my heart! ❤️
