

Doris Kent

September 29, 1922 - January 23, 2013

Doris Marie Kent, 90, of Bloomington, beloved wife of Leo Kent, went home to be with God on January 23rd. She was the first of seven daughters of Russell and Hazel Noel. Very well known in the Bloomington community, Doris served in numerous capacities. During World War II she worked at Crane Naval Ammunition Depot and also served as the Bloomington Civic Newcomer's hostess. In her later years she managed Hazels, a prominent camera shop on Kirkwood. Among many of the activities that Doris and her late husband enjoyed were Indiana University sports and cultural events. Doris most cherished her time with her family and friends. She especially enjoyed time with her five children, ten grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren. Doris is survived by her five children, David Leo Kent of Walloon Lake, Michigan, Charles Russell Kent of Knoxville, Tennessee, R. Joyce Lucas of Montgomery, Alabama, Twyla Anita Lamb of Franklin Indiana, and Stephen L. Kent of Indianapolis, Indiana. Doris was a lifetime member of North Central Church of Christ and had a fond affinity for Spring Mill Bible Camp. A well known Bloomington resident Doris will be fondly remembered and missed for her devoted love to family, friends, and the Bloomington Community at large. Funeral services for Doris will be held Tuesday

January 29, 2013 at the North Central Church of Christ at 10:00AM.

Calling will also be held at the North Central Church of Christ,

4:00-8:00pm on Monday, January 28th. If you would like to offer

“ To my cousin Kents - My truly heartfelt sympathy for your loss. My favorite memories of Doris were our many lunches together, when I was a student and she was at Hazels. Great fun at Nick's and the Gold Rush - good food, family gossip, and spending time with her. She was a true favorite - Best Wishes, Mike

“ My Dad and I wish to send our condolences to all of the Kent family during this very difficult time.

You will remember us from the Woodlawn/17th street neighborhood so many years ago. Yet the passing of years does not diminish the fond memories of summer days playing with the Kent children and visiting your grandfathers grocery. I have such fond memories of Doris as one of the neighborhood Mom's.

We lost my Mom (Fern Brown) in August.

Twyla, we live near each other. I would love to hear from you sometime when you have had a chance to heal. I know it takes time. I would be glad to take you to coffee and provide you comfort in any way I can. My best wishes to comfort to Joyce and all the family as well.

Our prayers are with you.

“ David, Charles, Joyce, Twyla, and Steve

Sharing your sorrow in the loss of one so dear. Sending deepest sympathy.

I remember all the good times we had together.

She was one of a kind lady.

Love to you and your families' Charlene
