

Dorothea "Dot" Johnson

January 4, 1929 - June 13, 2013

Dorothea "Dot" Johnson, 84, of Bloomington and formerly of Spencer died on Thursday afternoon at I.U. Health-Bloomington Hospital. She was born in Brown County the daughter of Harry V. and Ethel (Pogue) Mathis and was a graduate of Nashville High School. She was a homemaker and previously worked at the Brown County State Park where she met her future husband, Lewis Johnson. She was a member and former Sunday school teacher at Wesley United Methodist Church in Indianapolis and also a Girl Scout leader.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Bj Bennett and Frederic Bennett of Spencer and Mariann and Ken Lawson of Cincinnati, OH, four grandchildren; Jeremiah(wife Shannon) Rieke of Bloomington, Jonathan Rieke of Indianapolis, Brad Lawson and Bethany Lawson (fiance' Jesse Bamber) all of Cincinnati. Also surviving is one sister, Betty (husband Wayne) Carmichael of Bloomington, four sisters-in-law; Juanita Mathis of Indianapolis, Martha Mathis of Beauford, S.C., Louise Johnson of Bloomington and Mary Ellen Johnson of Beaver Falls, PA.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lewis W. "Johnny" Johnson, her parents and two brothers, Russell H. Mathis and Charles W. "Charley" Mathis.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at 4:00 p.m. Sunday, June 16, 2013 at Allen Funeral Home with her daughter, Rev. Bj Bennett officiating. Friends may call one hour preceding the services at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Spencer United Methodist Church Food Pantry in care of the funeral home. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.