“ Condolances to her family and many friends who loved her in Bloomington, Indiana.
I met Dorothy at the First Presbyterian Church, in Bloomington, when I started work there, 29 years ago. We often had Lunch in the fellowship hall, together My treat. We celebrated her birthdays. I and others helped her get her social security set up. She had a nice place, until the city bought owners out for new Jail court house. Over the years we would run into each other or my daughter would see her and talk if she said Teresas Daughter. I found out she was in nursing home doing well. Elizabeth was looking out for her was good news. I'm sorry My health has not been good so didnt go see her to visit. I am unable to make service as my daughter & husband are ill they are my rides. I hope Her family will get my Info from Elizabeth. I spoke with her son that was in military before. Interesting as of late I found out I am related to Hart family my grandmother in Nebraska lines in IL ,Oh,In and my great great Aunt was married to a Moffet in Iowa Elizabeth will know how to reach my daughter.
