“ Although I did not know you dear loved one, I saw the obituary online and wanted to send you my condolences. This is a very difficult time for your family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4. It says: "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no mor, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " I sincerely hope this brings you comfort

“ Dear Jewel:

I am so very sorry to hear of the death of my sweet Sunday School teacher, Sister Dorothy and your mother. Its a very hard place to go thru regardless of their age. My sincere condolences. Take care of your self. I have tried to find You on Facebook but didn't know your last name.

“ She was the best Sunday School teacher ever. So inspiring. I was trying to learn how to be a Christian and she had a lot of good input. I'll never forget the "In your patience possess ye your soul" example of when she had to put up with growly customers on her job.

“Jewel and family:

My husband Michael and I were saddened to hear of the passing of Sister Dorothy Pierson, but rejoice that she is at home with the Lord.

We were students at IU in the late 70's and were blessed to have your mother as our Sunday School teacher. The wisdom that she imparted was priceless and her example of joy, service, faith, and love of the Lord, provided us with a marvelous template for how to live our lives.

We moved back to Bloomington in the 90's and were delighted to find her still serving the Lord with joy.

God bless you during this difficult time, but we trust you can find comfort in knowing the marvelous impact your mother had on our lives and countless others, and what a marvelous gift of God she was to us all.

Comfort, grace and peace to you.
