“ Family of Douglas Coffey: When Doug was born, Phyllis and I were Very Close Friends. She needed & welcomed my coming to their home to help her for a couple of days, as she had a very hard time during Doug's birth. I was thrilled to help in any way I could. So, I picked Doug up and started dancing with him in my arms. Phyllis had a good laugh and smile watching me dance with Doug. We were all very close and loving Friends

Many years ago I happened to run into Doug downtown Bloomington, there was no doubt for me to recognize him as he looked so much like his Dad, Eddie. We talked briefly and it was a wonderful moment for both of us. To be able to exchange A brief few minutes together and see each other once again.

Both Phyllis and Eddie were very good friends and I cherished their friendship. I had met them through my close Friendship with Marilyn and Carolyn Hendricks during the late 1950s & 60s. Tho I went to school at the "old BHS" in Bloomington, I spent most of my time cruising around Spencer with All My Friends. We enjoyed each other's company and had some great times making unforgettable memories.

I was born and raised in my early years in Owen County. So making Friends there was like going home.

Keith and Scott, I don't know if you remember me or not, as you were younger.

But I want you both to know I remember you when you were young. I am so Deeply saddened by the loss of Doug and both your parents. My heart and prayers go out to Doug's family and to each of you two boys and your Families.

God be With Each and Every one of you at this time of sadness and loss of Doug, and in the years to come.

*Sincerely,
Jo Ann Taylor*

“Doug had a heart of gold and a zest for life. Determined to pick berries and mushrooms even with his walker. Always eager to share and have others enjoy. His most enjoyment came from his grandchildren and watching grow and achieve their goals. He will be missed by many.”
