“ What a wonderful man and friend. One of the great, ever optimistic Cubs fans and a very solid, citizen. Took the time to write 2 editions of memoirs for the family young folks to read how things used to be. I had the pleasure of serving with him for three years on the Homeowners' Association Board in Bloomington. He was a dedicated and hard worker. I'll miss our occasional telephone chats very much and am sure many others will miss him too. Our condolences to Henrietta and the family. Oliver and Holly Joy
