

Edna M. Radosevich

January 4, 1910 - January 1, 1973

Edna M. Radosevich, 103, of Bloomington, died on Friday September 27, 2013 at Brown County Health and Living Community in Nashville, Indiana.

She was born on January 4, 1910 in Seattle, to Lewis Thomas Archer and Leah Maude (Harmon) Archer. In California she graduated from Kerman High School, attended Fresno Business College, and worked as a book keeper for several businesses, and attended Fresno's Millbrook Presbyterian Church. She took great pleasure from playing the piano, reading, travel, dancing, quilting, and gardening. In her later years she lived in Bloomington with her daughter and son-in-law.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John Radosevich, son Gregory Radosevich, sister Leila Hill, brother Robert Archer, and grand children Leah (Radosevich) Rhoton, David Radosevich, and Leigh (Allison) Neal. She is survived by her daughter, Tomilea Allison, son-in-law James Allison, grand children Steve Radosevich and Devon (Allison) Bennett, and great grand children Nicole Rhoton, Joe Rhoton, Michelle Rhoton, Eleanor Bennett, Clio Bennett, Allison Neal, and Isabelle Neal.

Her family wishes to thank the staff of the Brown County Health and Living Community and Hospice for their thoughtful and affectionate care.

Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ Tomi, Jim and extended Family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time with the loss of Aunt Edna.

I remember many wonderful times being with Edna back in the 1940's, 1950's and more recently at her 90th Birthday. She was always an up beat and most gracious lady. Memories of her will live on forever-----
