

Eileen McNulty

April 26, 1939 - November 11, 2025

Eileen McNulty's life is a story of steady work, simple pleasures, and deep family ties. Born in the Bronx and raised in Merrick, New York, she carried the rhythms of her suburban Long Island childhood as she moved through life. Eileen was one of the founding officers of her High School Alumni Association organizing many publications and membership files – Go Mephram High! She attended Nassau Community College majoring in Business Administration.

Prior to her last home in Bloomington, Indiana, Eileen lived in Charlotte, North Carolina for 10 years, and then West Palm Beach, Florida for 5 years. These moves enabled Eileen to live closer to her older sister Marion.

For forty years, Eileen worked as a secretary - first with Equitable Insurance and later with Amerisure. Eileen was a steady presence who handled details and made the office feel orderly and dependable.

In Eileen's younger days, she enjoyed late night TV, movies, Don Ho concerts, travel, Tom Jones records, and the company of family. Though she never married, family was central to Eileen's world. The aunt to eleven nieces and nephews - she never missed a birthday - it was a role she clearly treasured.

Eileen loved to travel (especially San Francisco and Hawaii), all things Irish, crossword puzzles, and creative writing.

Her counted cross-stitch hobby speaks to a patient attention to detail and a pleasure in making something by hand. Eileen's favorite TV shows were Magnum PI and MASH.

We will miss Eileen - her quick wit and idiosyncrasies made her unique and exceptional. We all benefited by having Eileen's love and presence in our lives. May she rest in peace and enjoy a reunion with her family in heaven.
