

Eleanore Marian Wegener

April 14, 1921 - May 1, 2016

Eleanore Marian “Sally” Wegener (neé Zimmerman) of Bloomington, passed away on May 1, 2016, at McCormick’s Creek Rehabilitation and Skilled Nursing Center in Spencer. She was born on April 14, 1921 in Detroit, Michigan as the daughter of William and Lillian (Hilbrecht) Zimmerman.

Sally attended Madonna High School in Aurora, Illinois. She served in the United States Marine Corp. She graduated from Northern Illinois University and later received her M.S. in Recreation from Indiana University.

She worked for the Monroe County Mental Health Association, and for many years as the Activity Director at Fountainbleu Nursing Home (now Golden Living Center), and at Bloomington Convalescent Center.

Sally enjoyed making people smile and she did it well. She loved her family and nothing made her happier than when her grandchildren came over to her home. After retirement, she worked hard on her lessons for Bible Study Fellowship and she delighted in having dress-up tea parties with her granddaughters. She was a member of Clearnote Church.

She is survived by two sons, David (Terri) Wegener of Bloomington, and Tim (Anne) Wegener of Springville, 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and one brother, Lawrence Zimmerman of Elsobranite, California.

Sally was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Jonathan Wegener; daughter, Judith Wegener; and two brothers, William Zimmerman and James Zimmerman.

Visitation is scheduled for Monday, May 9, from 6-8pm at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37. The funeral service will be on Tuesday, May 10 at 2pm at Allen Funeral Home with a burial service to follow at Clear Creek Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Clearnote Church (www.clearnotebloomington.com).

Tribute Wall

“ She was Sally to me. We worked together as activity directors in Bloomington . I learned so much from her in those few months. She made the residents feel happy and useful , alive and refreshed. I will never forget her enthusiasm and zest for life! I pray that her passing was gentle and kind as she was. Praying for all of you, God Bless. Susan Robertson
