“ Thank you, Eli, for your service to our nation during the wane of the Cold War, and in the complicated years that followed. You left our world in better shape than when you entered, and left an example of service for all to aspire to. God be with you, and with your family.

“ Some of the best times at the health department were when Eli was working there. It was a short time that I shared office space with him, but he has remained one of my favorite guys. He will always be "Elly" to the girls who worked with him then. He was such a lovable person. Of course in working with you, Laretta, I still felt in touch with him. Our hearts are so sorrowful about this and it seems impossible that he is gone. Thinking about you and your family each day. With love, Mary

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Laretta & all the family during these most difficult days. Eli's spirit is free at last, but it is so hard for those who are left behind, there are not words to express the sense of loss. Please know that you are not alone, that our hearts go out to you.

“ Eli was a very special person. He was the "2010 Employee of the Year" at the VA Regional Office - a testament to his contribution as an employee. Perhaps more importantly, he was a kind and generous person who was well liked by everyone he worked with. I considered him a friend as well as a colleague, even though he always addressed me as "Mr. Myers". That was his way. I know he respected me as I respected him. He earned that respect by treating every thing he did and everyone he came in contact with as important. He truly was a very special person. I will miss him, but will continue to think of him someone I was privileged to have known.
