

Elizabeth Ann Langham

November 5, 1989 - June 25, 2021

Elizabeth was a fighter. From her earliest days she set her own course and put her whole heart into fulfilling her dreams. A talented musician, she wrote and performed numerous songs that touched others deeply. She also loved to run long distance, relay, and long jump. Her favorite thing was to make others smile, especially children.

Elizabeth Ann Langham, passed away on June 25, 2021. She was born on November 5, 1989 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Despite the numerous health issues that took her at 31, she pushed forward with unmatched determination. She ignored pain, frustration, and disappointment in pursuit of her goals. She graduated St. Charles Catholic School and Bloomington High School South and then left Bloomington to make her mark in the world. Whether in Tennessee, Virginia, Alabama, Florida, Texas, California, or home in Indiana, she left an indelible memory on all those she touched.

She is survived by her parents Ed and Susan Langham, siblings Fr. Todd Goodson, Kimberly (Vincenzo) Cazzaniga, , Stephanie (Vincent) Raffy, Jacob Langham and Zachary Langham. Very loving and supportive uncles and aunts: John (Lisa) Langham, Jim (Handan) Langham, Cathy (Rick) Kocerha, Angie (Gary, deceased) Beechler, and Margaret Langham. She loved her nieces and nephews, Rebekah, Leah, Benjamin, and Francesco Cazzaniga and cousins Stephen Kocerha, and Nicholas and Mackenzie Langham.

Elizabeth's Irish cousin, Kieran Fennelly, was an angel at the times we needed him most.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her grandparents: Stephen and Rose Langham, and Bert and Bertha Long, and her uncle Gary Beechler.

We are especially grateful to the wonderful, dedicated staffs at St. Jude Hospital, St. Edna Subacute Center, and Bridge Hospice in California and Golden LivingCenter and Premiere Hospice in Bloomington.

Her Celebration of Life Mass will be at St. Charles Catholic Church on Thursday, July 1, 2021 at 11:00am. Fr. Todd Goodson presiding. There will be no visitation.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory is handling the arrangements and online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com.

“ She was brave and full of energy, spirited, motivation, love, especially towards helping others but same time stubborn. She would leave an impact, a mark of her present where ever she been. She loved her music as she loved living. She will be missed and remembered like one of your favorite song you've just heard in a long time.

I have been often wondering what happened to Elizabeth. I met her in 2017 and we became fast friends and then roommates. I come across pictures of her on my Facebook that will pop up periodically. I have been trying to find her to check in but wasn't expecting this. My deepest and most sincere condolences to her family and friends. She had the voice of an angel. We didn't leave one another on the best of terms but I always wished her the best. Rest In Peace Elizabeth ❤️

Elizabeth was a nice girl who was so kind to those around her. I met her in 2009ish at Fashion Vegan where she did some modeling for us to help support animal rights. May you rest in peace, Elizabeth. Thank you for all you did for us

“Father Todd, I'm so sorry for your loss of your sister. It is never easy to lose a loved one but especially not a young one. I sit here gazing at her picture and can't help but think you are taking comfort in knowing she is smiling at God in heaven.”

“ Dear Ed, Susan and family:

My wife, Ann, and I send our condolences to all of you following Elizabeth's passing.

Some 16 years ago - a good fraction of a human life but a scant wisp of time among the stars - I tutored Elizabeth and her brother in math.

She was always positive about what she wished to accomplish and had a distinct musical ability. She once brought a CD she had made to our session and let me hear her sing.

She was a delightful young lady in whom you justly took pride.

We know that each of you will have your particular pattern of grief to work through over this loss.

Allow it to complete its course regardless of the time needed, and never allow anyone to tell you when your grief should be expended!

You alone will know; absolutely no other human being has the right to dictate that.

Our prayers are hereby respectfully offered.

Sincerely,

Charles and Ann Justice

“ Our deepest heart filled sympathies to the family of Elizabeth (“E”) Langham. I met her on social media in 2012 when a friend in common told me that I should take a listen to her music. I was not a fan of “hip hop” but her songs, style, lyrics and soul was so impressive I knew from the start that she was definitely headed for greatness. By 2013 she move to Southern California and she won our hearts here in San Diego. Elizabeth was a unique person full of so much determination and hope. We spent a lot of time together sharing our common love for music and entertainment. My husband Chuck and I loved her unconditionally and we started mentoring her both musically and spiritually. We put our hearts and soul into coming along side of her through much love, music, counseling, prayer, our church, encouragement and friendship. Greatness seems to come from a lot of pain in many artists. We loved her as “E” and she had so much potential, beyond most people I’d ever known. She would draw you in. The space she drew you into was a deep place. Her music was all her. The words she wrote were from her heart and usually the opposite of what was really going on in her actual life. We will miss you so much Elizabeth Langham. Thank you for the beauty and joy you shared with us and may your legacy through your music continue to touch lives. You have finally found peace and you are now in the arms of our living and loving Savior.
