“ My mother, Winifred Wickes, met Elsie when, she moved to Meadowood in 1998. Mom and Elsie shared many interests and became fast friends. They shared lots of adventures and enjoyed each other's company for 15 years, until Mom's dementia required a move. Since then they have seen each other seldom, but each time it was a joyous reunion. Everyone in our family knew and loved Elsie, and we will miss her bright spirit. With love....Cecelia Wickes Knapp

“ I first met Elsie when her husband, David, appointed me his Associate Dean. During those years Dean Clark often held staff meetings at the Clark home so I would see Elsie then. Once David left IU for a position at another university, I lost track of Elsie, so when we moved to Meadowood a few years ago I was pleasantly surprised to find that she was a resident here. Since then I have had the pleasure of seeing Elsie on almost a daily basis. Despite problems with her vision she always had a smile as she recognized many of us by our voices alone. I loved Elsie’s laugh and sense of humor and will miss her.

“ I became a friend of Elsie when moving to Meadowood in Feb. 2006. We shared bridge, meals, and visits many times. She was such an upbeat person and never new a stranger. I will miss her pleasant company and hope to see her when I move on. Betty Vance May the Lord grant you comfort and peace in your loss.
