

Elsie Mae Kermmoade

May 27, 1938 - June 21, 2025

Elsie Mae Kermmoade, age 87, entered Heaven's gates singing on Saturday, June 21, 2025, at Hearthstone Health Campus in Bloomington, Indiana. She was born in Gilbert, Arizona on May 27, 1938, to Roy and Juanita Ballard.

Elsie spent over 50 years as an ordained minister for the Salvation Army and the Pentecostal Church of God.

She is survived by her children, Rick (Char) Kermmoade and LaVonne (Jim) Brainerd; many grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren; and her sisters, Wanda Weatherman, Darlene Girdner, Claudie Roberts, and Donna Wilson. Elsie was preceded in death by her parents, Roy and Juanita Ballard; her husband, Dale Kermmoade; siblings, Louise Smith, Glenda Hampton, and Bud Ballard; children, Dale Rotschafer, John Rotschafer, and Ellen Fochtman; and grandson, Ben Rotschafer.

No local service will be held, but a memorial gathering will be held in California at a later date.

--"Not perfect, just forgiven."

Tribute Wall

“ Mom K was not just a mother inlaw..She was my Mom. I had her for 46 years,13 years longer than my own precious mom. I loved her and looked up to her. Now she and Mom can look down together and smile or shake their heads.

Mary Burton - June 22, 2025 at 01:18 PM

DW

“ ELSIE was the best big sister in the world. She was truly loving,generous and her love for God and serving Him was her passion. She is in the arms of Jesus and those who went home before her. I love you, big Sister! From your little Sis

Donna Wilson - June 21, 2025 at 07:24 PM