“ My sincere condolences to you, Cindy and your family on the transitioning of your mother's journey from this life to a much better life in heaven with our savior. How blessed your mother was to have such a caring daughter and I am sure she was extremely proud of you. May God bless all of you and keep you especially right now close to his heart to give your strength. I'm sure my grandmother has already been showing her around up there. Again, my sincere condolence to you and your family. PLEASE call me if you need anything. Your small room buddy, Deb Unversaw
