“ John,

I didn't see much of Eric but I remember him playing in Sheila Bear's back yard. I think it was at one of the weinie roasts a couple years ago. He was chasing the little ones and they piled up all over him. He'd chase and then they would chase and he would always let them catch him; but somehow he never caught them. He was and will always be a sweet soul. My love and thoughts continue to be with you and Becky. Ralphia Selzer
