“ I just learned today of Eugene's passing and wish to express my sympathies. His room at GV, 331, was where my parents were when they entered GV in 2012. After Dad's passing, mom moved down the hall to 337. I enjoyed talking to Eugene and singing with him sometimes. He always had a big smile and was full of life until the last few weeks when I started missing him more often in the dining room. I know the men at his table will miss him as well as those of us who visit regularly. He was a kind soul and I will miss talking to him. He always appreciated any special attention anyone showed him. My mother is Ruth McClung. You have our condolences for his loss.
