

Florence A. Walters

February 2, 1964 - December 14, 2014

Florence A. Walters, 50, of Bloomington, passed away just before noon Sunday, December 14, 2014, at IU Health Bloomington Hospital, she was the mother of five David Seagle (passed) , Clarissa Schulze, Gregory Seagle, Levi Seagle and Chris Seagle. She's also survived by her six grandchildren Anthony Ferentinos, Nicholas, Paulie, Jiovanni, Caleb Schulze, and Kyra Seagle and through other family including her sister Darlene Walters and brother Gary Walters and friends. She was a strong wonderful woman who always tried to find the good in people and was loved by all who knew her.

Her ceremony will be held Monday, December 22, 2014 just west of Bloomington at First Assembly of God Church in Ellettsville, IN. All are welcome to come in remembrances of Florence. A remembrance will be from 10am-11am followed by a ceremony at 11am. There will be a lunch after the ceremony for all who would love to visit with friends and family of Florence.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

JU

“ I am a fellow caregiver at Home Instead. I only met Florence one time at her caregiver of the year ceremony. She seemed like a very wonderful and warm person. Please accept my condolences to all of her family and may you find peace in your remembrance of her..

julie jensen - October 26, 2015 at 04:02 PM