“ Janet and Jake, we are so very sorry for your loss. Eric was a good man and friend and he will be missed. We had good times through baseball over the years and talking cycling. We've been praying for Eric and you through these past 8-9 difficult and heart breaking months. We are sorry that we will not make it to the visitation since we are out of state. We'll be thinking of you and praying for you. The Abram family.
