“ Tory, Aaron and Nate. We are so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I grew up with your Dad and he and I went into the Marines together. I'll never forget the first night of Boot Camp when I lost my cover (hat in civilian terms) and had to walk around for 3 days and nights with my hands on my head to avoid sun or moon burn. Your Dad said he almost lost it several times during that time but knew he would be in trouble too. We have laughed about that many times and I think he managed to tell everyone he ever met that story. Farewell to a good friend, Marine, father and grandfather. May you rest in peace. Semper Fi

“Condolences to Aaron and all of Frank's family. He was well liked and respected by all. And, Frank always accorded respect and kindness as well. He seemed to be enjoying his retirement, especially since this gave him time spend with his grandchildren.

“I was so very sorry to learn about the passing of Butch. I have so many memories of the Hancock children playing with my children when we lived in Dolan. Butch was a little older. I just shared one of my earliest memories of Butch with Ann.....regarding his telling me, as his Vacation Bible School teacher, that his name was Willy! We called him "Willy" all week until his mother blew his cover! I assume it was after he left his service with the Marines that he came to my office looking for a job. We had no openings at the time, and I pointed him to Don Graves in I.U. computing. Apparently he spent the rest of his working career with I.U. Butch, like his siblings, had such a wonderful upbeat personality! We had a common hairdresser on South Walnut Street, and I enjoyed visiting with him there on a couple of occasions (what a beautiful head of hair!). Please accept my love and most sincere condolences. The world has lost one of its bright lights! Blessings on the family.

“ Frank left this life the way he lived it, completely organized and in control. He used his illness as an opportunity to tell his family and friends how valued they were. Frank was without a doubt one of the smartest men I have ever met, not to mention the most dedicated Grandfather.

“ Aaron and family,

So sorry to hear of your dad's illness and passing away. He was a great co-worker and I have missed him since leaving UITS. Frank and I shared lots of great kid/grandkid stories and ideas, and I am so glad he was able to make it to the house with Ronan and Milan for one of our Easter Egg hunts. He adored all of his grandchildren and I loved hearing all about them.

Your dad was fun to be around and a prankster; he always kept things interesting. I have lots of great memories with him at work, and I am thankful for those fun times. I can't believe he is gone. May God comfort all those who loved him at this difficult time.
