

Fredrick "Rick" Lee Abbitt Jr.

June 16, 1965 - May 18, 2026

Fredrick "Rick" Lee Abbitt Jr., 60, of Bloomington, passed away on May 18, 2026. He was born on June 16, 1965, in Bloomington, Indiana, where he was raised and remained deeply connected to his family and community throughout his life.

Fredrick was the beloved son of Linda Abbitt and the late Fredrick Abbitt Sr. He is survived by his brothers, Jonathon Abbitt (Julie) and Ronald Abbitt (Carole); his nieces, Denelle Laughlin (Brandon) and Cloe Abbitt; his nephews, Jayden Bock and Waylyn Abbitt; and his great-niece, RaeLynn Laughlin. He is also survived by his aunts, Judy Lake, Madeline Morris, and Pam Abbitt; his uncles, Horace Lake and Daniel Abbitt (Dawn), and many extended family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his father, Fredrick Abbitt Sr.; his uncle, James "Bud" Abbitt (Shirley); seven additional aunts and uncles; and his cousin, JD Abbitt.

Fredrick worked as a mechanic and tow truck driver, careers that reflected his lifelong love of working with his hands. He enjoyed tinkering with cars and had a deep passion for NASCAR and dirt track racing. More than anything, Fredrick loved his family. He was the kind of person who was always willing to lend a helping hand and be there whenever someone needed him.

A Celebration of Life will be held on June 7, 2026, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Buddy Bill's Bait Barn.

Fredrick will be remembered for his generous heart, his loyalty to those he loved, and the countless memories he created with family and friends.
