

Fulgencio Tlahuex Ahuatl

January 16, 1958 - October 31, 2022

Fulgencio was welcomed into this world by his parents, Vicente Tlahuex and Elvira Ahuatl Vicents on January 16th, 1958.

Born and raised in a little town in Mexico, Fulgencio was a big fan of sports. He loved playing baseball and he also competed in cycling where he won several trophy's. Fulgencio was known by everyone to be an honest, caring and loving family man. It was that same love for his family that led him and his wife, Regina Aca, to relocate to Bloomington, IN to be united with their family again.

Blessed with one daughter, four grandchildren and a great grandchild, they were Fulgencio's pride and joy. Despite suffering from several health issues throughout the years, Fulgencio always found time to tend to his family. Fulgencio was known to be the grandparent that would always let the kids play outside in the yard as he too liked being out with them. Fulgencio loved to sit in the sun and spend time outside tending to his garden, he would've lived outside if it were up to him.

Succumbing to his health issues, Fulgencio passed peacefully surrounded by his loved ones at the age of 64. Fulgencio is survived by his wife Regina Aca, his daughter, Yolanda Tlahuex-Aca, his four grandchildren Hernan Aca-Tlahuex, Jose Luis Aca-Tlahuex, Ally Aca-Tlahuex, Alex Aca-Tlahuex and his great grandson, Liam Aca, and several nieces and nephews.

Fulgencio is preceded in death by his mother, Elvira Ahuatl Vicents, his father, Vicente Tlahuex and his brother, Lucio Cuateco.
