

Gaynell Lou Hyde

January 24, 1928 - October 21, 2020

Gaynell Lou Hyde, 92, of Bloomington, passed away on October 21, 2020 at her residence. She was born on January 24, 1928 in Bloomington, the daughter of Ray and Alice Stephenson.

Gaynell married Harold E. Hyde on January 5, 1949, and although Gaynell and Harold never had any children of their own, they opened their hearts and home to multiple generations of surrogate children with their nieces and nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews, and great-great-nieces and nephews. Gaynell enjoyed fishing crocheting and gardening and was a devoted homemaker and caretaker to those around her.

Gaynell is survived by many nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and even a few great-great-nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold Hyde, and siblings, Lillian Fern Henderson, Lavern Goodman, Max R. Stephenson and Mary E. Shaw.

A private family service will be held. Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements.
