

George Daniel Hass Jr

July 13, 1943 - January 11, 2026

George Hass Jr. (Age 82)

July 13, 1943—January 11, 2026

George Hass Jr. passed away peacefully early Sunday morning in his home. He is survived by his son, Christopher Hass, and his grandson, T.J. Hass.

George was born in Queens, New York, and grew up on Long Island. He spent his summers on the beaches of Rocky Point, where he learned to love the water and boating. He was a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America, and as a salesman for Nestlé he transferred to Indianapolis. There he met his wife Sherry. They moved to Bloomington with their young son Tim in 1971, where George has lived ever since.

For more than 40 years, George owned and operated Liqua-Dry Lawn Care and could often be seen around town in his 1986 GMC modified dump truck.

George spent the past 43 years in the same home on Ramp Creek Road, not far from the lake he loved. In the winter, he could be found on the ski slopes, as part of the ski patrol at Ski World, Paoli Peaks and Perfect North.

George has been a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints for more than 50 years, serving in many positions within the church—from counseling those struggling with addiction to mentoring young single adults.

He found cats later in life but became a devoted cat lover. He remained active until the very end, spending time with loved ones, or at the lake, and always helping friends, family, and even strangers. He was a kind friend to countless people, always eager to offer help, advice, or an amusing story.

All who knew and loved him are invited to join his family at a viewing at Allen Funeral Home on South Walnut Street in Bloomington (4155 S. Old State Road 37), any time from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 16.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, January 17, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on West Third Street in Bloomington. There will be a brief visitation from 12:00 p.m. to 12:45 p.m., followed by the service at 1:00 p.m.
