

Georgia R. Bledsoe

April 13, 1913 - March 30, 2011

Georgia R. Bledsoe, age 97, died peacefully Wednesday morning at IU Health - Bloomington Hospital. She was born in Joliet, Illinois to Albert and Ruby Richardson Stateler. Her husband, Amos, died in 1959.

Throughout her full life, Georgia was thoroughly engaged in politics, her church, duplicate bridge, travel and, of course, her family. Most of her working life was as president of Windsong Travel, Inc.

A Requiem Eucharist will be celebrated 2:00p.m. Saturday, April 16th at Trinity Episcopal Church, 111 South Grant Street in Bloomington. The Rev. Charles Dupree will be the Celebrant.

Georgia is survived by son George E. Bledsoe of Bloomington and son Arthur W. Bledsoe (wife - Emmy) of Mahwah, New Jersey; granddaughter Cynthia Cueto (husband - Francis) and their three children (Olivia, Alexandra, Francesca) of Dover, Massachusetts; grandson Kenneth Bledsoe (wife - Kelly) and their two children (Emma, William) of Boonton, New Jersey.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be given to Trinity Episcopal Church, 111 South Grant Street, Bloomington, IN 47408.

Allen Funeral Home of Bloomington is in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org

“ Dear George, Arthur, and family,

We are very sorry to learn about the death of your dear Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother. You were blessed in how she lived such a full and vibrant life. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. We'd attend the celebration of her life on April 16 @ Trinity Episopal but will be out of town next weekend.

*Peace,

“ I remember with much fondness carpooling with Georgia to go to Republican women's meetings. Frank and I will surely miss her sharp wit and wonderful chats. She was an outstanding citizen of our country. I am so sorry I can't be at her memorial due to Frank's illness.
