

Glen Allen Porter

June 18, 1963 - May 5, 2020

Glen Allen Porter, 56, of Bloomington, Passed away Tuesday, May 5, 2020 at his home in Bloomington. Glen was born on June 18, 1963 in Chicago, Illinois and the son of Patricia Courtney. He served six years in the US Army with three as Military Police. He enjoyed working for the US Postal Service in Virginia for several years and spent several more years on the road truck driving before retiring in 2010.

Glen was a member of Rosland Hills Baptist Church in Roanoke, VA. He had a love for reading, poetry, drawing, graphic design and working with computers. He also liked watching movies, listening to music, and was a lifelong Dave Matthews Band fan. He was an avid cat lover and loved cooking for others. He loved spending time with his family and grandchildren, and he will be missed by all who loved and knew him.

Glen is survived by his children, Eirika (Tyler) Lewis of Halifax, VA; Alexis (David) Davis of Bloomington; Nicholas (Annie) Porter of Bloomington; four grandchildren Greyson, Hunter, Kira, and Virginia; his mother, Patricia Courtney of Bloomington; Aunt Diana (Ron) Hess, Aunt Pam Almonte, Aunt Shirley (Bill) Babler, and Uncle James (Julie) Lane; and many beloved cousins.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Myrtie Lane, and grandfather, James Lane, and his aunt Kathy Howe.

Glen was known for his gentle heart and soft voice. He had the gift of being an incredible listener and always had the best advice and wisdom for his children. He loved having conversations and could talk about anything. He will be deeply missed by his family.

There are no service scheduled at this time. Cremation Rites have been accorded.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com
