

Glenn Richardson Sr.

October 27, 1950 - September 30, 2010

Glenn A. Richardson, Sr., of Bloomington, passed away on Thursday, September 30, 2010 at his residence. He was 59 years old.

Born October 27, 1950 in Estill County, Kentucky he was the son of John Richardson and Mildred (Jones) Baker. Glenn retired from Cummins Engine in Columbus. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Indianapolis Shrine Club. He was an avid fisherman, and took great joy in spending time with family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Connie (Ferguson) Richardson of Bloomington; three children, Raven Richardson of Bloomington, Troy Richardson of Judah and Glenn Richardson Jr. of Connersville; one brother Millard Clay Richardson of Columbus; one sister Elizabeth Patton of Smithville; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his mother Mildred Baker and his father John Richardson.

Visitation will be on Sunday, October 3 from 2-5 pm at Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old State Rd 37, with a time of sharing and memories at 4:30pm.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org

“Connie and Raven, I am so sorry about Glenn. I heard about this too late to come and say goodbye. I only have happy memories of Glenn. He was the same everytime I saw him. Never too busy to stop and talk and he never failed to make me laugh. I know all of you will miss him. Raven, you got to do more things with your Dad than most kids get in their lifetime. You should have a million memories and Connie, how many stories can you tell about you and that husband of yours? He looks very handsome in this picture. I know he loved his family with his whole heart. I hope his boys are doing ok. I'm sure they are heart broken. Ya'll help each other get thru this. I love you all and hope we can talk soon. Whenever you are ready!! One more time for Glenn... Go Kentucky!!! Love, Shiela

“ Oh Connie - it has been years since our good times in Columbus. I have often wondered about you two. This is such a sad way to reconnect with you. Glen was such a fun loving guy. I just happened to read the Republic obits on-line. Looks like you have 3 children to draw your strength from now. May the comforting arm of Jesus embrace you and yours. Sending my love, Jo

“ Connie,
I'm so sorry about Glenn. I know how much you love him and he will be missed. You have gave up so much for him. Only you would've done that and that speaks volumes of your love for him. I have seen you guys at your worse and best. He loved you so much and sometimes I think he had a hard time showing that. I know he loved you though. Soon though you will realize that this time now belongs to you and Raven. No more holding back and not being able to do what you feel. You have to get through these next days, and start living for you. If you need anything, just let me know. I love you and will miss "Dad" terribly. I'm just glad I got to see him a few days ago, and hug & tell him how I love him. This is not not a ending Connie, but a beginning for a life for YOU in which you haven't had for years now. See you Sunday honey and Raven will be okay. She's a good kid and has a good head on her shoulders. You have been a good wife and mother.
