

Geneva Gretchen (Pettigrew) Ward

December 15, 1917 - December 9, 2015

Geneva Ward, 97, of Bloomington, passed away on Wednesday at the Richland Bean-Blossom Healthcare Center in Ellettsville. Geneva was born on December 15, 1917 in Lebanon, Indiana; she was the daughter of Clarence and Gracie Mae Pettigrew.

Geneva enjoyed crafts. She loved to sew, crochet and make ceramics. Geneva made beautiful cards for any special occasion.

Geneva is survived by her son Carl Keith Ward of Bloomington; daughter Verbia Sutherlen and husband Melvin of Ellettsville; grandchildren Brandy Gex of Houston, Texas, Fred R. Hall and Kristina Racina both of Fairbanks, Alaska, Daniel Baker and Carl Baker both of Bloomington, Denise Hall and Jay Hall both of Anchorage, Alaska, Eric Ward of Bloomington, Melanie Howard of Kentucky and Amy Schmidt of Madison, IN; three sisters Marilyn Wright of Florida, Loruna Goff of Sheridan, IN and Flo Covington of Lapel, IN; two brothers Boyd Pettigrew of Ellettsville and Arnold Pettigrew of Florida. Also surviving are 20 plus great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Carl Clayton Ward; daughters Jerry Jo Ludlow and Carla Marie Baker; granddaughter Tonya Maria Hall, daughter in law Betty Lou Ward, four sisters and two brothers.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.